

Alpe Adria Tour Regulation 2021

Considering the COVID emergency and the impossibility to guarantee the realization of all the events (currently confirmed) or to access them as participants because they are held in another region / state, the formula of the ALPE ADRIA TOUR for this year is structured as follows:

ART. 1 - PARTICIPATION

The ALPE ADRIA TOUR (AAT) 2021 circuit is a Mediofondo and Granfondo circuit and a final time trial reserved for all cyclists regularly registered for the year 2021 with UCI, FCI, ACSI Ciclismo and Sports Promotion Bodies recognized by CONI, which provides individual points rankings.

Participation in the AAT Circuit is foreseen by registering using the form that can be downloaded from the website www.boramultisport.net and the individual fee of 20 euros.

The GRID of MERIT at the start, the rankings, the participation gadget if classified, awards will be GUARANTEED.

Race registrations will be regulated by individual Organizations and the participant in the Alpe Adria Circuit will have to register for the race individually (20 euros do not include registrations for races)

All subscribers will have access to the dedicated Alpe Adria Tour merit grid, rankings, gadgets, awards. Participants will be classified with the presence of at least 50% of the regularly organized races specified as follows , 3 out of 4, 4 out of 5-6-7 organized competitions; “presence” means the conclusion of the race and placement in the standings.
